

INDIAN ASSOCIATION OF STATISTICS & DATA SCIENCE

1-c, Malar Sunflower Apartment, 2nd sub lane, 16th Cross street, Krishna Nagar, Lawspet, Puducherry (UTI), 605008, Email: indianasandds@gmail.com. Mobile: +91 9629862241

CONSTITUTION

Preamble

A what's app group called "School of Statistics and Data Sciences" was created by Prof. Tirupathi Rao of Pondicherry university to promote exchange of research thoughts and activities in Statistics coupled with Data sciences. Subsequently, many faculty and student members of this group of nearly 900 members have demanded a serious long pending issue of having a separate paper in Statistics in UGC JRF test and made a request to initiate steps to communicate to appropriate decision making bodies and request them to resolve this issue in the larger interest of the students. Therefore, this has formed the immediate short-term goal of this elite group.

With this backdrop, these 900 members suggested to form a forum, hence the said group is renamed as "Indian Association of Statistics and Data Sciences (IASDS) which has become the nomenclature of this new forum came into existence to continue multiple novel objectives.

Article 1 - Name of the Association

This forum shall be named as Indian Association of Statistics and Data Science (IASDS)

Email: indianasandds@gmail.com. Mobile: +91 9629862241

Web: yet to furnish

Account Details of IASDS: yet to furnish

Article 2 –Address of the Association’s Office

The address of the Association is: 1-c, Malar Sunflower Apartment, 2nd sub lane, 16th Cross Street, Krishna Nagar, Lawspet, Puducherry (UTI), 605008

Article 3 - Objectives

The objectives of the Association shall be the advancement of, the conducting of research in, the study of, the promotion and propagation of knowledge in Statistics and Data Science through exchange of information, the establishment and maintenance of professional and academic standards of work known as Statistics, the improvement of methods and techniques of Statistics and Data Science, publishing Technical Reports and conducting professional examinations as listed below.

- I. To provide Statistical Consultancy in
- II. To provide Statistical Training
- III. Can assist to choose software tools and data visualization techniques

- IV. To Develop the customized statistical models and algorithms tailored to clients' specific needs involves a structured process to ensure accuracy, relevance, and usability.
- V. To Conduct data mining and predictive analysis involves leveraging advanced statistical and machine learning techniques to extract actionable insights from data and make informed decisions.
- VI. To Collaborate with researchers on data-driven projects across various fields involves bringing together interdisciplinary teams to tackle complex problems and leverage data to drive insights and innovation.
- VII. Contributing to the advancement of statistical science through in-house research and publication of technical reports involves conducting innovative research, developing new methodologies, and disseminating findings to the broader scientific community.
- VIII. To Develop the statistical tools for enhancing AI techniques through machine learning involves creating methodologies, algorithms, and software frameworks that improve the performance, robustness, and interpretability of machine learning models.
- IX. To conduct Conferences, Seminars, Workshops, Symposiums, summer schools, Faculty Development Programs for propagation of the Statistical Knowledge among the academic and research Community. Periodic academic/research networking with the above mentioned (not limited to the specified) activities have to be arranged.
- X. To Promote the data literacy and fostering a culture of evidence-based decision-making within an organization and communities involves empowering individuals with the knowledge, skills, and mindset necessary to understand, analyze, and interpret data effectively.
- XI. To assist policy makers like Local Governments, State Government, Central Government, NITI AYOGE, etc. statutory bodies for policy formulation for sustainable development of the country.

(Further details of the above nine objectives are given in Annexure)

Article 4 – General

- I. To establish office and its maintenance, libraries, exhibitions, collections and displays of literature, statistics and information relating to Statistics and Data Science and allied disciplines.
- II. To offer and carry out advisory and consultancy services on a prescribed payment basis to industry.
- III. Necessary amounts to be charged for offering consultancy services to be decided by the subcommittee of Executive Committee (EC – Details of EC are given in Article 5).
- IV. To invest the funds of the Association, not immediately required, in such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be decided.
- V. To work with institutions, Associations or associations having objectives wholly or in part similar to any of those of the Association and to co-operate with any person or persons in pursuance of such objectives;
- VI. The financial resources of the Association shall be utilized only for the purpose of promotion of the objectives of the Association as set forth above and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the members of the Association.

- VII. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of reasonable and proper remuneration, to any officer or servant or member of the Association. In return for any services actually rendered to the Association by the officer or any other member shall be reimbursed the expenses incurred.

Article 5 - Executive Committee

- I. Tenure of the Office of Executive committee of the Association shall be Two years.
- II. The Executive committee cum office bearers of the Association will be
- | | |
|---------------------|----|
| a) President | 1 |
| b) Vice-Presidents | 2 |
| c) Secretary | 1 |
| d) Joint Secretary | 1 |
| e) Treasurer | 1 |
| f) Members | 9 |
| g) Advisory Members | 9 |
| Total | 24 |
- III. The President shall function as the Constitutional head of the Association performing all the duties required by the Constitution and Bye-laws.
- IV. The Vice-Presidents of the Association will assist and advise the President in all matters in furtherance of the objectives of the Association as provided in the Constitution. In the absence of the President, Vice-Presidents present in the Executive committee meeting will preside over the meeting while in such an event if both the Vice-Presidents are present, the senior between them will preside over the meeting.
- V. The Secretary, assisted with Joint secretary shall be responsible for overall observance of all provisions in this Constitution, Bye-laws and implementation of all resolutions adopted by executive committee.
- VI. The Treasurer will carry out his/her duties keeping in view the financial health of the Association in all aspects and shall function in a manner that will assist the President / Secretary in furthering the objectives of the Association as required by this Constitution, Bye-laws and decisions of the Executive committee.
- VII. All office bearers of the Association shall be life members of the Association.
- VIII. The Executive committee shall administer the affairs of the Association and shall call meetings, lay down publication policies, invest and administer the funds of the Association and approve the appointment of such committees as may be required from time to time.
- IX. After the expiry of the tenure of each EC, the immediate past President of the EC shall be the x-officio member of the current EC for continuity of the administration.
- X. The elected executive committee shall have the right to co-opt up to three members in the executive committee to balance the representation from each region of the country. It will also nominate a life member as web master to maintain and look after the updates of the association web site.

- XI. The President of the association shall invite past presidents of the association or any other person as special invitee to the executive committee meeting depending upon the circumstances.

Article 6 –Membership of the Association:

- I. Any person interested in becoming a member shall, before he can do so, sign and deliver to the Association an application for admission to membership, addressed to the Secretary or his designated representative.
- II. In such form as the Executive committee may from time to time decide and such application shall be accompanied by the appropriate fees as defined in the Bye-laws of the Association.
- III. However, a person will become a member only if his/her application is approved by the Executive committee or by the President / Secretary authorized by the executive committee to do so.
- IV. The membership Fees for different categories is as follows
- | | |
|--|--------------|
| a. Life Membership below 60 years – | Rs. 5,000/- |
| b. Life Membership for above 60 years – | Rs. 3,000/- |
| c. Annual Membership for Faculty Members – | Rs. 500/- |
| d. Annual Membership for Research Scholars – | Rs. 300/- |
| e. Annual Membership for Students - | Rs. 50/- |
| f. Institutional Life Membership – | Rs. 30,000/- |
| g. Annual Membership for Institution – | Rs. 3, 000/- |
| h. Life Membership for Foreigners below 60 years | $. 100/- |
| i. Life Membership for Foreigners above 60 years | $.50/- |

However, the decision of the membership fees will be modified as per the approval of Annual General Body Meetings.

Article 7: Election

- I. The President shall appoint the Election Officers comprising three Senior Members in good standing, with the approval of the executive committee, either through a meeting so held or by circulation well in advance in the year in which the election is due. The Election Officers shall be authorized to nominate a senior life member in the association as returning officer.
- II. The returning officer shall notify the election schedule 45 days before the election date.
- III. The returning officer shall seek nominations from one or more candidates for each office to be filled, keeping in mind the requirement as stipulated in the Constitution or its bylaws by circulating the election notification to all members of the association each nomination paper shall bear the signature of the candidate(s), proposer and seconder.
- IV. All nomination papers are to be received by the Returning Officer. In case of insufficient/ no nomination for any post(s) of executive committee, the outgoing executive committee make such nomination to the incoming executive committee.

- V. The list of valid contesting candidates of office bearers of EC to be finalized 5 days before the elections by the Returning Officer, he shall mail to each eligible member the finalized ballot paper. Every member other than student members who does not have any outstanding dues to the association, 30 days prior to the date of the elections will be the eligible voter.
- VI. E - Voting shall be through online process using google forms. The tenure of the office bearers and the members of the executive committee shall be for a period of two years.
- VII. The post of the President, if falls vacant before the expiry of the term, shall be held by one of the Vice-Presidents to be elected by the executive committee members as existing at the time the vacancy. In case of vacancies in the posts of Vice-Presidents and Executive members, no action shall be taken to fill these vacancies the next scheduled term of elections. However, in case of vacancies caused in the post of the Secretary and Treasurer the executive committee shall either fill in the vacancies for the remaining period of the term from among the elected executive members or would take such steps as necessary to fill in the vacancies through nomination.

Article 8 - Accounts Maintenance of the Association

- I. The accounting period for the Association shall be the date of registration of the association to 31st March 2025, subsequently the accounting period will be from 1st April to 31st March of every year.
- II. The treasurer shall be responsible for maintaining the receipts and payments of funds related to the association as per the usual admissible accounting procedure in a ledger form. However, Bank accounts be handled by any two persons among the President/ Secretary/ Treasurer.
- III. To augment the income of the IASDS, the Association shall invest in lucrative schemes having minimum risk in the nationalized banks.

Article 9- Amendment of the Constitution

- I. No article shall be added to this constitution and no part shall be amended or annulled except by formal written proposal, followed by opportunity for discussion at the business session of any regularly scheduled meeting of the Association and by a letter ballot, except as noted in sub section 5 below.
- II. Proposal of a change may be made by the Executive committee or by a petition to the President signed by at least twenty members of the Association in good standing with voting rights.
- III. The Secretary shall distribute copies of the proposed change to all members of the Association not less than three weeks before any regularly scheduled meeting of the Association, and opportunity shall be given to the members of the Association for discussion at the business session of the meeting.
- IV. Not more than eight weeks after this meeting, the Secretary shall distribute copies of the proposed change, an explanation of the purposes of the change, ballot forms and the effective date of the change, if approved, to all eligible members of the Association.

- V. An amendment proposed by the executive committee may, at its discretion, be - submitted to the members with voting rights, with modifications made in the light of the discussion at the regularly scheduled meeting of executive committee. A change proposed by petition, shall be submitted in the original form, but the executive committee shall have the right to submit an amendment to the change in the light of the discussion at the regularly scheduled meeting of the executive committee.
- VI. The adoption of the proposed change shall require the affirmative votes of not less than two-thirds of the Members in the general body meeting or twenty members whichever is less.
- VII. The result of the ballot shall be announced to the members by the Secretary and, if approved, the change shall become effective at the date previously stipulated by the executive committee.

Article 10 - By-Laws of the Association (To be finalized by the lawyer)

- I. Bye-laws may be adopted, annulled, or amended by letter ballot in the manner set forth in Article X for changes in the constitution, or by the affirmative votes of a majority of the Members present at a session of a meeting of the Association.
- II. No such action shall be taken at a session of a meeting of the Association unless the change in the By-laws is proposed by the executive committee or by a written request of at least fifty Members with voting rights nor unless notice of the proposed change shall have been mailed by the Secretary to each member not less than three weeks before the meeting at which the change is offered for discussion.

Article 11 - Committees of the Association

- I. Committees with specific terms of reference shall be appointed, as required, by the President with the approval of the executive committee.
- II. The committees appointed by the President shall conduct their business in accordance with the agenda given to them.
- III. The executive committee may by a majority decision appoint various sub committees from time to time and for such purposes as it may deem fit. Student- members may be co-opted into such sub-committees.
- IV. The advisory committee may be constituted by the senior life members as per the consent of the members. The maximum size of the advisory committee shall be 9. These members shall be the elders of the association shall advise on demand. They don't have any voting rights on agenda matters of the Executive Committee.
- V. The state level chapters of IASDS are encouraged. The proposal may be submitted to the secretary of IASDS by any member, supported by 20% members belonging to that state, it will be placed before EC for approval.
- VI. Such proposals shall clearly specify the composition of EC concerning to that chapter which may be called as local EC of that state for distinction purpose.

Article 12 - Meetings of the Association

- I. There shall be an Annual General Meeting of the Association at the time of the Annual Convention of the Association. In case the annual convention is not held in any year, the Annual General Meeting of the Association will be held in any other convenient place at the Annual General Meeting. Physical mode of the meeting is the preference for having AGM. However, the association is flexible to have the meeting online/virtual mode as per the contextual requirements.
- II. Approving of accounts, changes in the constitution and bye-laws which have been approved by the executive committee must be approved with 2/3rd majority of the members present.
- III. Five executive committee members personally present at a meeting of executive committee shall constitute a quorum. In exceptional circumstances resolutions can be adopted by circulation among all executive committee members.
- IV. Twenty members in good standing with voting rights personally present at the Annual General Meeting shall constitute a quorum, if the AGM is dissolved for lack of quorum, it will be reconvened within six months at any location selected by the executive committee with at least three weeks' notice and no quorum will be necessary for such meeting.
- V. However, all meeting of the association whenever feasible shall be held virtually.

Article 13 - Winding Up/ Dissolution of the Association

- I. Any 75 % members of the Association (other than student members and institutional members) or any 75% members of the executive committee may suggest the dissolution of the Association to the Secretary indicating such reason(s) as are found appropriate for such dissolution.
- II. The Secretary shall then communicate about the dissolution of the Association to all members.
- III. Any funds/property standing as available, after meeting all the due expense of the Association till the date of actual dissolution shall be transferred to such an organization/institution involved in teaching/ research/ allied activities in Statistics for a minimum period of five years previous to the date of dissolution of IASDS as decided by the EC.